

Delay Repay

Please use this form for
Passenger's Charter claims

Terms and Conditions

1. Our Delay Repay scheme started on 01 April 2016 and is applicable to tickets used for journeys on or after this date only.
2. In order to receive Delay Repay compensation you must complete this form in its entirety and send to our Customer Relations team. You must include all travel tickets for the journey you wish to claim for. In the case of e-tickets and mobile tickets you must include your booking reference. We cannot process your claim without this information. You can choose to submit this information online via our website at tpexpress.co.uk/help
3. All Delay Repay claims must be made within 28 days of your journey.
4. The amount of Delay Repay compensation you will receive is detailed below. This is the standard level of compensation you will receive. Any other requests for compensation should be made in writing to our Freepost address.
 - 30 to 59 minutes delay: Compensation of 50% of your single ticket or 50% of the relevant portion of your return ticket.
 - 60 to 119 minutes delay: Compensation of 100% of the cost of your single ticket or 100% of the cost of the relevant portion of your return ticket.
 - More than 120 minutes delay: Compensation of 100% of the cost of your single ticket or 100% of the cost of your return ticket.
5. We do not normally accept claims in cases where trains are delayed if you were notified of the delay before you purchased your ticket and you still decide to travel. We will, however, consider each case on its own merits.
6. Our default method of payment is by cash in the form of a cheque, but you can choose to have your payment made back onto the credit / debit card you used for your purchase, via e-voucher or in rail travel vouchers.
7. Season Ticket holders will be refunded the proportionate cost of the price of the ticket. If you would like to know how this is calculated, please contact our Customer Relations team.
8. Refunds-Delay Repay is not a scheme to claim refunds on tickets. However, if the train you planned to catch is delayed or cancelled and you decide not to travel, we will, where possible, give you a full refund if you return your ticket to any ticket office. Alternatively, you may claim a refund by writing to our Customer Relations team. If you decide for some reason other than train cancellation or delay not to use a ticket you have bought, you can apply for a refund at any staffed station. In this case, we may charge an administration fee. Refunds are not available on tickets marked 'Advance Purchase'.
9. We accept no responsibility for forms or tickets lost in the post.
